

School of Leaders
Secretariat Report
November 8 Th

Mass was celebrated at 7:00

Following Mass, 42 Cursillistas from the English community gathered for the School of Leaders

SOL opened with Leaders Prayer

Deacon Ed Bowden gave us the spiritual talk concerning the gift of Cursillo, a world wide movement given to the Church and the world by the Holy Spirit. We do not need to reinvent the wheel. We are in a life long process of metonia, so developing our holiness and spirituality is crucial for us.

Following this talk, Announcements were made on up coming events

1. Nominations were taken for the Three-Day Weekends coming this spring.

Nominations for the woman's weekend May 17th—20th are the following

A. Brenda Wellmon and B. Terry Sambrano

2. Nominations for the men's Three-Day Weekend June 7th—10th are the following

A. Terry Verbois B. Dan Martin C. Greg Lacroix

3. Father Francis handed out for us a calendar and a Cursillo schedule for 2007.

4. Cindy Johnson coordinator for the women's Fall Three Day Weekend reported on the weekend as well done.

We also welcomed three new babe chicks to the School of Leaders.

5. Mary Jean Nagy talked on the new Leaders Manuel and other Cursillo material.

Lay talk given by Gary Marcucci served to motivate us and to inform us on the post Cursillo, especially the importance of friendship grouping and attending Ultreyas. He used a good analogy on the unity and leadership geese use when migrating. Working together we can support each other in reaching our goals.

Following this talk Sol broke into small share groups for sharing our lives together.

Deacon Ed Bowden led us in closing prayer.

Next School of Leaders will be on Wednesday, December 13th

We will vote on the next coordinators for the spring weekends at this School of Leaders.

Respectfully Submitted,

John Hunter

SOL Coordinator
