

SCHOOL OF LEADERS
REPORT TO SECRETARIAT
July 28, 2009

Attendance for the month of July was above average for this time last year (since we didn't have one last year), but not bad—between 8 and 12. The presentations by Connie Bretzke and Mary Casselman were well received and sparked some interesting discussion among the School members. Connie brought out an interesting quote from the Bible from Romans about not letting anything that we do (including, but not limited to, the music) be a stumbling block to the candidates. Although she was not saying that the music was a stumbling block, the School agreed that it could be a stumbling block (as can many “add in” to the weekend).

Dan Martin and Tony Hernandez will be speaking in August on the expanded schedule for Saturday.

I will continue to request members of teams 109 and 209 to be the presenters for the upcoming Schools of Leaders to finish up the expanded schedule and then begin reviewing the talks one by one, not the actual talks, but the things to consider in preparing the talks, such as where it falls on the weekend and where the candidates would be in their journey, etc.

The Secretary, Connie Bretzke was inducted into the Secretariat at the July 7 School.

Respectfully submitted,

Denise Flemister
School of Leaders Coordinator
